Cars May Be Towed Away

Village Plans Parking Law With 'Teeth'

The only thing that "puts teeth" in a parking ticket is a law that provides for the car to be towed away.

That opinion was expressed by Antioch's police chief, Jack Wells, at Monday night's licenses and safety committee meeting of village trustees.

Trustee Ron Cunningham agreed:

"I'd like to see us tow away at the owner's expense. Then we'd see parking abuses stop."

"I don't think we'd have to do it too often before the word got around and the habitual violations ceased," said Diane (Willie) Schmidt, another trustee.

TRUSTEE BILL Seemann said the license committee will draw up an ordinance, "a rough draft, and we'll hammer it out when we meet again in two weeks."

Monday night's meeting included five of the six village trustees; Marilyn Sterbenz, village clerk; Chief Wells and Lt. Tim Zelinski of the police department; Bill Patterson, representing the Chamber of Commerce; and several interested citizens.

When they talked about towing away cars, they weren't referring to the shopper who accidentally gets a $1 ticket and pays it. They were concerned about persons who ignore tickets and parking laws.

Downtown Parking Problems Aired

"ALTHOUGH WE talked about removing the downtown parking meters, I think they're now here to stay," said Cunningham. "We are now in the process of strict enforcement."

A member of the police department has been patrolling the business district and ticketing cars that are parked overtime.

"How do we deal with a car that's ticketed at 11 in the morning and is still there at 4 in the afternoon?" asked trustee Mike Haley.

That's when Cunningham said he'd like to see it towed away at the owner's expense.

"Towing can be arranged with an ordinance," Chief Wells said. "You remove the car and impound it until both the towing expense and the ticket are paid."

LT. ZELINSKI said one of the problems is the people who work in the stores and come out every two hours and feed the meters. This isn't illegal.

"This is where the Chamber of Commerce can police itself," said Haley. "But we must help them. If we let the Chamber's board of directors know about these people, they can go to the employers and ask that the practice be stopped."

Patterson said the Chamber is in the process of asking its members and their employees to cooperate by not occupying the downtown spaces all day long.

"A little more pressure can be put on by the Chamber and I'll ask that it be applied," Patterson said.

PATTERSON SAID that Antioch's $1 parking fine was the lowest of six communities he has checked. Most start at $2, he said.

Haley said he'd like to see the fine increased as notices are sent out by the police department. This, he said, would make it worthwhile to collect the fines.

He suggested the fine be increased to perhaps $5 within two weeks and $25 within a month.

The exact amount of the increases and the rules for towing away cars will be worked out in the new ordinance.

Chief Wells said the ticket should be sufficient in itself, and that the girls at the police department shouldn't even have to send out a first notice.

Mrs. Sterbenz pointed out that the present village parking ticket calls for a fine of $1 if paid within 24 hours and, if not paid within that limit, "an enforcement warrant will be issued and an assessment not to exceed $100 collected."

THE PARK Commission was scheduled to meet tonight (Wednesday) but that gathering has been postponed. The next regular village board meeting will be at 8 p.m. next Monday.

A 7:30 p.m. zoning board meeting is scheduled Sept. 6 and a 7:30 p.m. plan commission meeting is slated for Sept. 9.

LUCILLE SIMONSEN

Lucille Simonsen, Lifelong Resident Of Antioch, Dies

Mrs. Lucille A. Simonsen, 65, of 989 Victoria St., Antioch, died Friday at Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, after a brief illness. She was born in Antioch on Aug. 17, 1910, the daughter of the late Otto and Amelia Hanke and had lived in the community all her life. She married Edgar Simonsen on June 26, 1937, in Antioch.

Mrs. Simonsen is survived by her husband, Edgar, a brother Otto (Florence) Hanke of Antioch and a sister Mrs. Henrietta (Lester) Hawley of Walworth, Wis.

The funeral was at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the Strang Funeral Home, Antioch, with the Rev. Mr. Lawrence Nolte of the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was in Home Oak Cemetery near Antioch.

Memorials to the Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church or to the Antioch Rescue Squad may be made in Mrs. Simonsen's memory.

Friends recall that Mrs. Simonsen always wrote letters to young Antioch men who were in service, making sure that they were kept posted on the local news.

Her husband, Edgar, was Antioch's fire chief for many years and superintendent of public works for 11 years.

Fire Scorches Exterior of Gilded Cage

Antioch fire fighters Monday night put out a fire on the backsteps of the Gilded Cage gift shop, south of the village on Hy. 83.

The fire trucks were called out at 9 p.m. and the men confined the fire to the outside of the building, which was scorched by the flames.

Fire Chief Charles (Tod) Maplethorpe said it appeared that children may have been playing with matches and set a trash fire. He said the sheriff's department is investigating.

"Now, just listen to my story, please, and don't be swayed by all the evidence..."

Lake Villa's Volunteers Sharpen Skills

As part of its ongoing training for members, the Lake Villa Township Rescue Squad has held a defensive driving course. The course, conducted by state police, was an eight-hour classroom session. It was held on two evenings with 15 members of the rescue squad and 15 members of the Lake Villa fire department participating.

Subjects included proper handling of the vehicle, bad weather conditions, safety tips, use of seat belts and head rests, preparing for trips, and how to "read the road."

Each person attending the course received a certificate.

THE TRAINING schedule for the rescue squad includes practice in auto extrication (the how and wherefore of rescuing a person trapped in a car after an accident) and CPR (Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation).

CPR is commonly referred to as external heart massage. Self contained breathing apparatus, commonly referred to as Scott-Air-Paks, includes the proper use, refilling the tanks, and how to put on the apparatus under adverse conditions.

ALL OF THESE training sessions are reviewed for the squad members and conducted periodically to sharpen skills.

The idea of including the emergency services, such as the police and fire department, is to provide them with additional training and to develop a better working relationship.

The rescue squad thanked the Lake Villa fire department for the use of its station during the defensive driving course.

The squad will provide programs to outside interested groups at anytime. Information is available by calling Capt. John Lynn at 356-2244 or Sgt. Jake Fish at 356-5107 during the day, or Lt. Arthur Hansen at 356-5637 or Lt. Tom Domek at 395-0735 at night.

Grass Lake Registers Next Week

Registration of all students (K-8) and SEDOL resident students will be held at the Grass Lake school on Aug. 16, 17 and 18 from 7:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Children entering kindergarten, or first-grade and the fifth grade, must have medical and dental examinations. Forms are available at the school. Kindergarten and all new students should present birth certificates at registration.

School begins Tuesday, Aug. 31. It will be a full day of attendance.

Volunteer insurance will be available at registration. Boys and girls participating in sports must have insurance coverage.

Hot lunches will be provided students if desired.

PM&L Play Deserved Larger Audiences

On Sunday, Antioch's PM&L Theater concluded two weekends of performances of the musical comedy, "The Pajama Game."

There were about 20 persons in the audience for the Sunday Matinee, and the cozy theater on Main St. was about half-filled for the Sunday night finale.

It also was half-filled on opening night, 12 days ago, when we reviewed the play and called it "delightful and entertaining."

The only really big crowd came last Saturday night when about 190 of the theater's 210 comfortable, new seats were filled.

A LOT OF PEOPLE stayed away from a truly excellent production.

"Pajama Game" is pure fun, and good music and dancing. It played successfully on Broadway and then was made into a movie starring Doris Day.

In the Antioch Production, a talented cast gave a very entertaining performance. There is an abundance of outstanding theatrical ability in these parts, and for "Pajama Game" the stage was full of talent.

We'd like to mention the entire cast because, as usual, PM&L didn't have a weak link.

BUT THE STARS Lou Jones, as the pajama factory superintendent, and Mary Lou Davies, as head of the grievance committee, were absolute winners in their roles. Lou has been a leading man in several PM&L successes. Mary Lou, from Grayslake, is new to the PM&L stage and is as talented as she is pretty. (Somewhere, she must have taken "Doris Day Lessons.")

Pat Jamison, who had professional credits in New York before moving here, starred flawlessly in recent PM&L plays such as "Fiddler on the Roof" and "The Lion in Winter." This time she was director and choreographer and the cast showed the perfection that Pat demands of herself.

Mary Chris LaKome and Ken Smouse worked together as musical directors, and anyone familiar with PM&L knows how much they can do to polish a play.

It's too late to see "Pajama Game." Sorry if you missed it.

PM&L begins its 16th season on Oct. 9 with the musical love story, "Carnival." It's light, fanciful, and something to be enjoyed by the entire family. We hope you don't skip that one.

Calls Mondale 'Mud-Slinger'

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the subscriber who wrote the "classic" article about the Congress.

The author should send a copy to Mondale, who has been insulting our President, Mr. Ford.

This bird Mondale is all prepared to run a vile, mud-slinging campaign, and Carter knows all about it, too.

The Democrats' Presidential candidate speaks with a "forked tongue" when he says the campaign will be clean. He is making the bullets for Mondale to fire.

Mr. Ford asked him to keep the campaign on a high level and he said he would, but Mondale evidently doesn't hear too well.

Near-Drowning

Dear Editor:

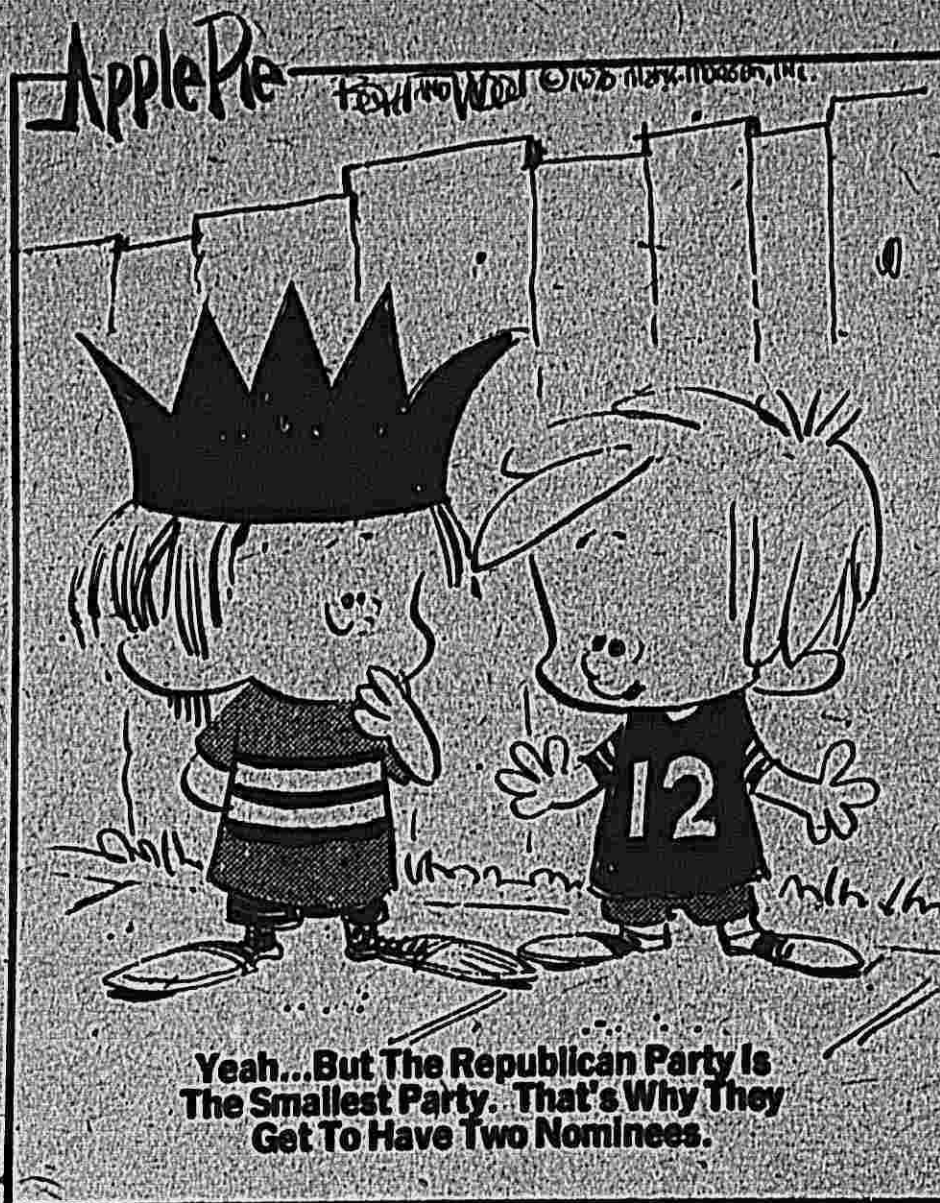

DROWNING! The next child may be yours.

Would you know what to do? Recently I witnessed a near-drowning. A man brought a small boy out of the water. The boy was blue and not breathing. There must have been 15 or 20 adults there, and no one knew exactly what to do. Everyone was telling the two men what they thought was right.

Somehow they managed to get the boy breathing again before the ambulance arrived.

I think it would be good for every beach to post a sign explaining, step by step, what to do in case of a drowning. Your mind could go blank, even if you have had a lifesaving course, should a real drowning occur.

Sincerely,
Donna Spittle

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

On Sunday, the family and friends of Jim and Phyllis McMillen will gather to help one of Antioch's favorite couples celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

We looked back in the Aug. 19, 1926, issue of the Antioch News and on the front page was the headline:

"Virginia Phyllis Morley Wedded to J.M. McMillen."

The story said, in part:

"At the Episcopal church, Waukegan, on Sunday, August 15, occurred the marriage of Miss Virginia Phyllis Morley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Morley, of Antioch, and Mr. James Willard McMillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McMillen of Grayslake. The young couple were attended by Miss Martha Sprague and Mr. James Peck, both of Grayslake. Miss Morley was one of Antioch's most popular young ladies and liked by everyone."

"Jim McMillen, a popular young athlete, known along the gold coast as 'Our Big Boy Wrestler,' is a big figure with the Chicago Bears and intends playing football with them the coming season.

"Immediately after the ceremony the young couple started on their honeymoon through Wisconsin.

"The News joins with the many friends in wishing them a long, prosperous and happy life."

Isn't it wonderful that the wishes of 1926 came true?

GOSH, DOWNTOWN Antioch certainly is taking on some new looks.

As we mentioned last week, DeGraff's Family Shoes of Grayslake will open an Antioch store on the east side of Main St., where Unfinished Business was located before it moved north to Bernie's Corner.

A store called Mostly Books II is moving into the former Tiffany Real Estate spot on the west side of Main St. It will sell new and used books at "discount prices." Jay Dziki has moved Tiffany Real Estate to Lake St., where the "Spice of Life" formerly was located.

We also hear that an "upholstery and drapery fabric shop" will move in at 393 Lake St., where the Trilogy Acade was located. The new store will be called "Pin & Pleat." Neat.

IF YOU'D like to see the latest village dump, take a walk to the little "courtyard" behind our offices at 950 Main St. and other businesses in the area. There's loose garbage lying around; it smells terrible, and it's attracting flies. Rats may be next.

Some downtown tenants couldn't care less about keeping Antioch clean.

I think I'll take a stroll behind other downtown stores and see if the same situation exists. Whose responsibility is this? Who is going to clean up the stinking mess and stop the offenders?

'Midnight Madness' Only 8 Days Away

People running around downtown in their pajamas?

Of course. It happens every summer in Antioch when the Chamber of Commerce and Industry stages its "Midnight Madness" celebration.

This year's fun is only eight days away... on Thursday, Aug. 10.

The star of the show (unless it's you in your pajamas) will be the new Miss Illinois, Betsy Joy Jamison of Mundelein. She will be competing for the title of Miss America in Atlantic City, N.J., in September... but first she's coming to Antioch on Aug. 19.

Miss Illinois will be near the water tower on Broadway St., autographing photographs of herself, supplied by the Chamber to customers free-of-charge.

ANOTHER FEATURE OF

"Midnight Madness" will be the Scarlet Knights drum and bugle corps, performing on Broadway at 7 p.m.

The pajama contest will be held near the water tower at 10:45 p.m. Even if that's past your bedtime, set the alarm for 10:30 and come downtown... come as you are.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners by Miss Illinois and all contestants will receive coupons redeemable for a free ice cream cone at White's Ice Cream Parlor.

Free popcorn will be given away in Orchard Plaza and at the corner of Lake and Main streets.

AFTER BEING open during the day as usual, stores will reopen at 7 p.m., offering shoppers their final summer clearance sales.

Participating stores include

Ace Hardware, Antioch Drugs, Ashland Jewelers, Barnstables Department Store, the Ben Franklin family center, BJ's Fashions for Men, Erickson's Sewing Center, Four Squires clothing store, Gibbs & Jensen's Carousel, the Globe department store, Hahn Jewelers, Mostly Books II, Sears Roebuck & Co., the Shoe Box family shoe center, and Stanley's Men's Fashions.

Midnight Madness will last from 7 p.m. till 12 midnight.

Per Capita Income Rises Substantially

Real per capita disposable income improved a great deal between 1960 and 1974 and would have been three times higher without inflation, according to the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The figures show that per capita disposable income increased 140 per cent in the 14-year period, but only one third of this increase remains after taking inflation into account.

CLC NEWS

Subject of Course Is Death and Dying

"One of the most talked about topics these days is the subject of death and dying," says College of Lake County counselor, Frank Nickels.

Thus, once again CLC is offering "The Many Faces of Death" on Wednesday nights at 7:15 for 16 weeks, beginning Aug. 25.

Topics to be discussed include grief and bereavement, interacting with the dying person, attitudes and awarenesses, faith and hope, funeral customs, suicide, euthanasia, and talking to children about death," Nickels said.

Among the guest speakers will be an insurance agent, attorney, clergyman, doctor and philosopher.

Registration can take place in person, Aug. 16-19, or during late registration up until the first evening the class meets.

THE COLLEGE of Lake County Counseling Center is planning two orientation programs for new students today at 1 p.m., and Thursday at 6 p.m. The purpose is to assist full and part-time students who have not seen a counselor to select programs and courses, to receive financial aid information, and to help clarify registration procedures.

Call the Counseling Center at 223-6601, extension 400, to make a reservation or for further information.

A NON-CREDIT course for the woman with sewing skills enough to create perfectly fitted garments of her own design is slated for the fall semester. "Wardrobe Pattern Design" will meet Friday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. for 16 weeks.

The $34 course fee includes basic drafting materials and instructions.

ANOTHER FIRST scheduled for the 1976 fall semester is "spiritual counseling," co-sponsored by the school's Counseling Services and "Ultimate Reality," a student Christian club. The campus ministry project will begin Tuesday, Sept. 7.

Bruce Ciesil, a CLC student, says the group has sensed the need for spiritual counseling for some time.

"Because there are now more than 10,000 persons enrolled at CLC, the club felt that there should be some kind of counseling service dealing with students' spiritual needs," Ciesil said.

A NEW COURSE, "Advanced Welding and Specialization," starts this fall at the college.

What's in a Name?

As you know, this weekly offering has always been a high-class piece of literature. I didn't want it to become a gossip column, but I guess I have no choice.

Not after seeing Melvin out with Julie the other night.

And then noticing that Archie and Alex were chasing after Annie.

The clincher came when I saw Stanley trying to get over a picket fence to get at Tammy.

ISN'T IT interesting that most of Antioch's dog owners give their pets names that normally are given to humans? Our friends at the village hall let us look at the animal license records and we found that, in Antioch, there are at least three dogs named George, two named Jack and two named Charlie.

There also is a Bruno, a Fritz, a Casey, a Daphne, Jeremiah, a Hector, a Cleo, a Wally, a Daisy, a Brutus, a Joe and (of course, here in Illinois) a dog named Abe. There's a Butch, too, and a Chico and a Maurice.

On the other hand, there are four dogs named Shadow, three named Brandy and others who come running when you call "Boo Boo," "Boogie," "McKeever," "Knuckles," "Bark-

THE CHURCH ON BEACON HILL - Antioch's First Church of Christ Scientist will celebrate its 10th anniversary and dedication of its church building on Sunday.

Church Celebrates 10th Anniversary

One of the lovely sights in Antioch is the simple colonial-style church overlooking Antioch Lake.

On Sunday, that parish - the First Church of Christ, Scientist - will celebrate the 10th anniversary and dedication of its church building.

Christian Science churches are not dedicated until they are debt free. The Antioch church is located on the hill at the corner of Harden St. and Route 173.

In June, 1915, a small group of Christian Scientists held a meeting, elected officers, and began holding services which have continued since that time.

Early services were held at the Majestic Theater, Odd Fellows Hall and Chin Hall.

For many years a small church on Victoria St. was used, until larger quarters were needed for church services, Sunday School and reading room facilities.

VISITORS FIND the charming colonial church with its well-lighted steeple, soft lights around the building grounds, and simple restful interior most attractive.

More than 60 years ago the members elected their first Readers, Joseph and Florence Weidenfeld. Every three years since, new Readers have been elected by the membership, and last Jan. 21 Murray R. Conzelman and Barbara C. Beese began their term of office.

The members of First church of Christ, Scientist are extending an invitation to the community to attend its Sunday services at 11 a.m., and its Wednesday evening testimony meetings at 8 p.m.

"Inspiring testimonies of healing are shared," a spokesman for the church said.

A children's room is provided for small children during services. Sunday School is held at the same time as the church service and children, up to the age of 20, are invited to attend.

THE ANNUAL SWIM-A-THON, sponsored by the Antioch Lions Club, begins today (Wednesday) at 12 noon. Swimmers will be clicking off lengths in the Aqua Center pool until 10 o'clock tonight. The young swimmers, and some of Antioch's "older" celebrities, too, will dive into the pool to raise money for the benefit of the Aqua Center. They have been getting "pledges per length" from businessmen and other residents. A 5-speed bicycle and other prizes await those who raise the most money. Standing in the front row (left to right) are: Ted White, Craig White, Jerry Schmidt (last year's winner), Coach Marty Berry and Denise Latz. Behind them are Shelly Volling, and Lions Club members Walter Shepard, Tom Haley and Rod White.

NATURALLY, THERE'S a collie named "Lassie," but we can't explain why there's an Irish setter called Wolfgang.
The Irish Setter named Shannon
... that one figures.

We're not sure, but we presume "Ali" is named for the heavyweight boxing champion.
There's also a little dachshund in Antioch known as Cuddles and, since dachshunds are a breed of German origin, it's only natural that Ward Lear's pet would be called Leibschen, which is German for "Sweetheart."

Chris Evans, who came here from Germany, calls her German shepherd "Himmel," which means heaven.

Cider Gutowski already has received some publicity in the Antioch News and so has another dog.

We told this story a couple years ago. A lady took her new puppy to the vet for shots and was asked:

"What's the dog's name?"
"We didn't want to rush into it," she answered. "So we thought we'd think about it for a few days and name the dog Sunday."

"Well, why don't you?" asked the vet.

So that's how Sunday (or Sundae, if you prefer) got her name.

BRANDY IS a fine name for a dog, and maybe that's why Antioch has at least three of them. A lot of us, when we're lost, are hoping a St. Bernard will show up with a small keg of brandy around its neck.

But the Antioch person who named the family dog "Six different kind of thirst in mind.

Lindenhurst Student Wins Scholarship

Bart Jeffery Erickson, a 1976 graduate of Antioch High School, has been awarded an Illinois General Assembly tuition scholarship.

The announcement was made by State Rep. Donald E. Deuster (R. Mundelein).

Bart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Erickson, 380 Northgate Rd., Lindenhurst. He will attend the University of Illinois at Urbana this fall and plans to study engineering, preparatory to a career in the theory, design and application of digital computers and information processing techniques.

At Antioch High School, Bart was a member of the National Honor Society, the Spanish Club and graduated third in his class.

Local Talent To Romp In 'Colonial Capers'

DIRECTOR AL BUCAR rehearses "Colonial Capers" with two of the bicentennial production's "winsome wenches," Ellen McDowell and Irene Hahn.

A cast that includes a lot of talent and a lot of near-talent is rehearsing for "Colonial Capers '76," a musical spoof of the American Revolution.

The production, which promises to feature some of the most memorable dramatic moments in Antioch's history (and some moments that the performers might wish to live down) will be staged at the Antioch High School auditorium at 8 p.m. on two Saturday nights, Aug. 21 and Aug. 28.

Although Colonial Capers is not an entirely serious work of theatrical art, it does feature a host of exceptional talent.

THE DIRECTORS, doctors Al Bucar and Jim Kopriva, have a record of past success too long to list. And their cast includes such proven local acting talent as Joe Hunley, Bob Lindblad and Hank and Ricky Apostol. Florence Babusek, a singer of professional ability, will perform as "Florence Thrushville."

There also will be accomplished dancers from Kim Kalla's studio, including Jennifer Bellucci.

DOCTORS Kopriva and Bucar are staging the production for the Antioch Bicentennial Commission. They have promised "an all-star cast of village luminaries, dashing dandies, winsome wenches and madcap musicians."

That cast includes several who may be launching entirely new careers once they get their chance in the red, white and blue spotlights.

For example, Louise Johnson is playing the part of Betsy Ross. Tom Kedzie will perform as Lafayette. Bill Brook as Benjamin Franklin and Carolyn Blanchette as ... well, they haven't yet agreed on the name of Carolyn's role.

IN THE "Colonial Hit Parade," Steve Rzyzko is billed as Snooky Wonderful and Frank Johnson as Russell Gun.

"You might say we're approaching this in the American way of looking at ourselves and laughing," said Ricky Apostol. "Colonial Capers will include lots of good songs, good music and good old humor."

"There also will be a terrific duel between the British and the Americans," she said, "with the British singing 'God Save the King' and our side responding with 'My Country 'Tis of Thee.' I think it's worth the trip to the high school just to hear this."

Tickets are being sold for $2 at all three Antioch financial institutions.

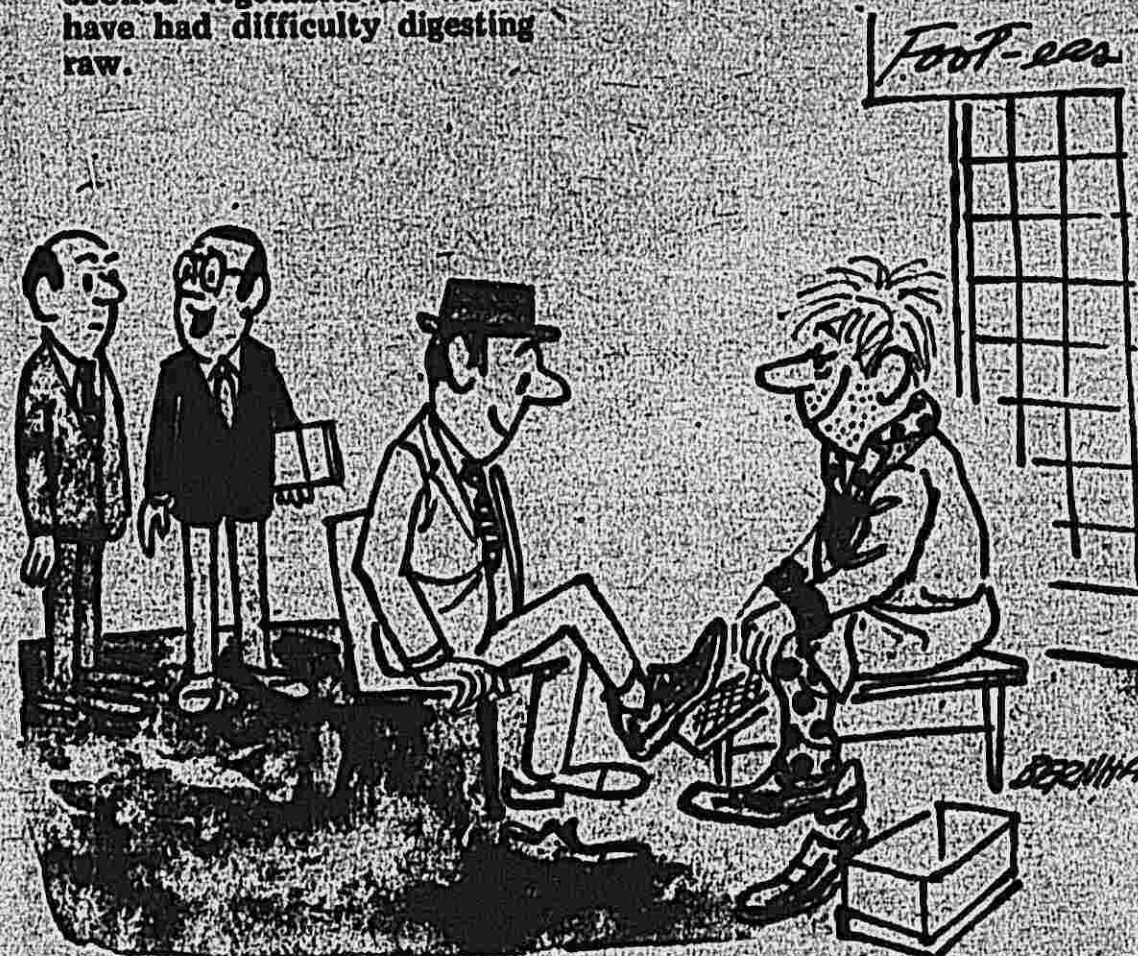

CLASS GETS LESSON IN ECONOMICS

There's more than one way to learn the hard facts of business, students at one elementary school have discovered.

A group of them borrowed $5 from a local bank to start a popcorn-selling business, and after solving a few marketing and production problems, were able to repay their loan at the regular rate of interest, showing a small profit in dollars and cents but a big profit in experience.

When primitive man discovered fire and heat, he was able to supplement his diet of fruits, nuts, berries and animal products with many cooked vegetables he would have had difficulty digesting raw.

"But can he ever sell slippers?"

UNFOUNDED Fears

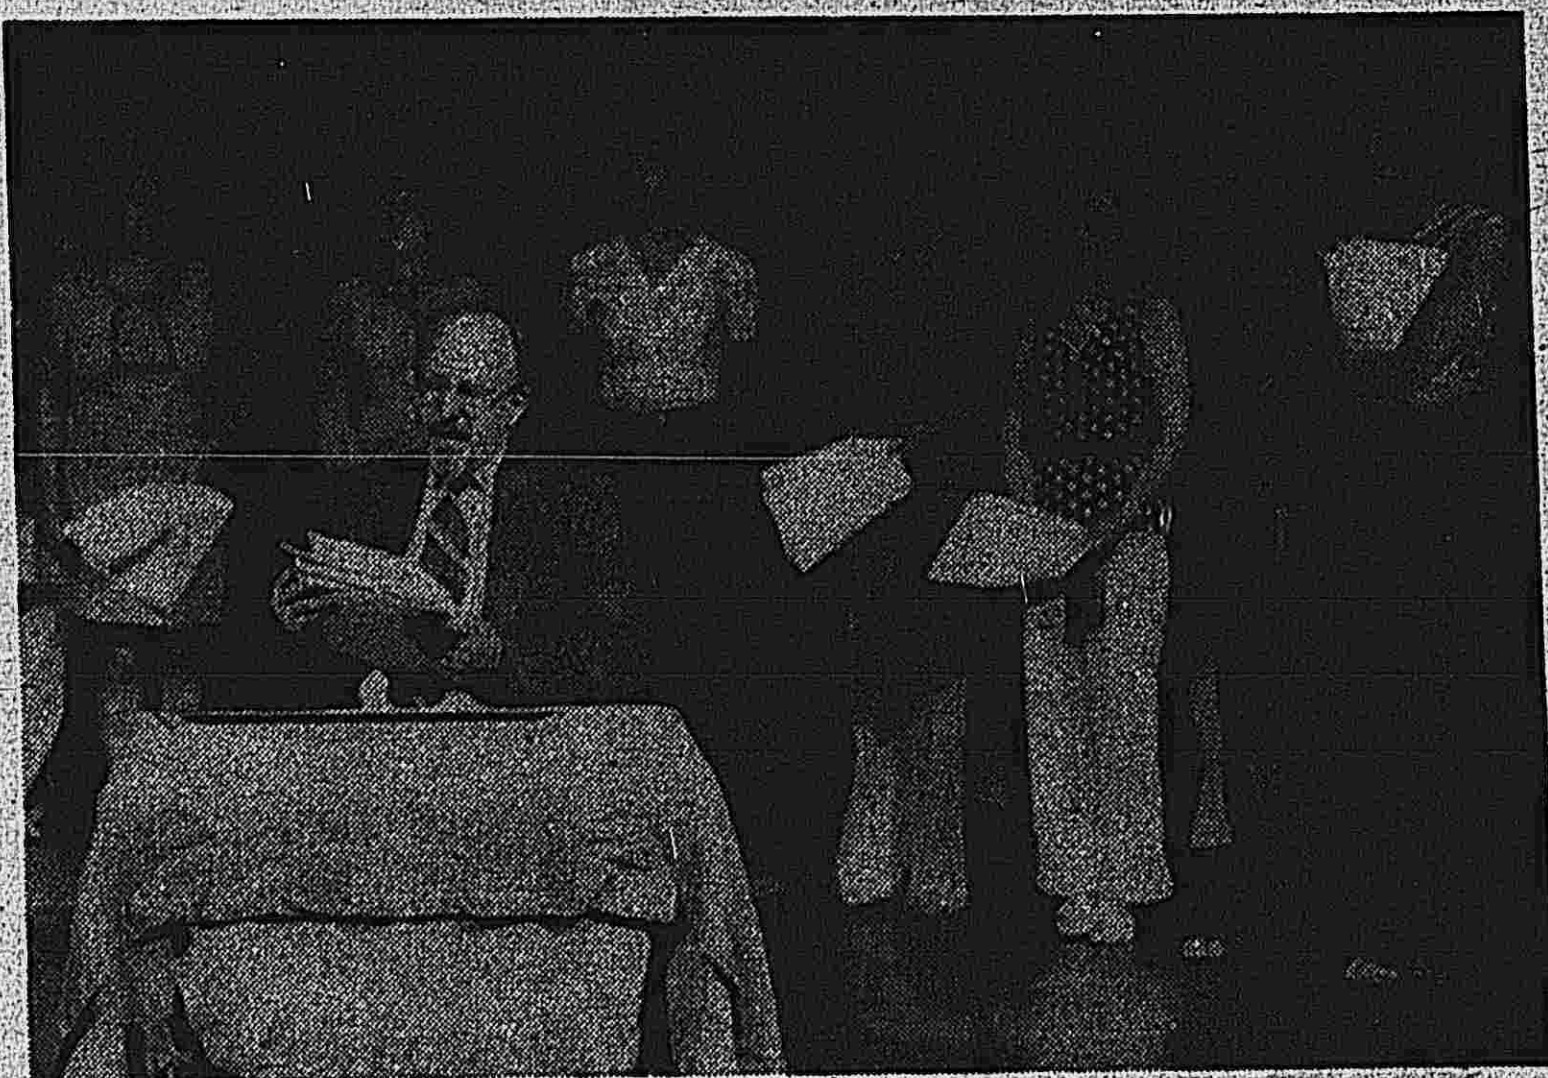

Less than a century ago, automobiles so scared the average person that outlandish laws were suggested to restrict their use. A proposed Pennsylvania ordinance would have required a driver to stop his car every mile, send up a rocket, and wait 10 minutes to make sure the road was clear.

Some Italian women once were so afraid that the hair cut from their heads would fall into the hands of sorcerers that they burned their shorn locks and hid them in places they were sure nobody would find them.

THE MUSICAL SPOOF of the American Revolution will include Dr. Jim Kopriva (left) on the clavichord and Bill Brook with his banjo.

DISTINGUISHED ANTIOCH ACTOR Josef Hunley portrays Thomas Jefferson, writing the Declaration of Independence, while an "all-star chorus" provides background music.

Car pools anyone? More Americans are saving gasoline, says a recent Roper Poll, by driving slower, combining errands, having their cars tuned more often, buying smaller cars, and walking. But, say the pollsters, not many people are trying car pools, which could be the biggest money and fuel saver of all. A new Federal Highway Administration study estimates that two compact car drivers commuting 10 miles to work could save $332 a year, if they became a two-man pool, $502 if they joined a five-person pool.

FURNITURE CLINIC

By JANET MILLER

Q. I have a big old wooden desk which I dearly love. But it looks terrible because somewhere along the way, someone tried to paint it black. Now, some of the paint is wearing off and I see possibilities of a nice wood finish underneath. However, I don't think I want to take all of the paint off, unless this can be done quickly and easily. I am considering just repainting it to make it look nice. And if I decide to do this, should I use a brush or a spray?

S.D., Salem, Wis.

A. If the paint is coming off easily on its own, I would definitely suggest stripping it the rest of the way off.

The best stripping compound that I have ever used is Extra Heavy Duty Bix. It cuts through 3 to 5 coats of paint in about 10 minutes.

It is the only "stuff" I use now.

If you should decide to repaint it, the choice is up to you concerning spray or brush. On large, flat areas, I prefer to use a brush, saving the sprays for spindles, legs, etc.

If you were to use a spray on the whole desk, besides being expensive to use, your nostrils would probably be so full of paint and propellant that you could pinch your nose together and it would stay stuck.

I truly hope you decide to remove the paint and take advantage of the beauty of the wood beneath. I think you will be surprised to find how effortless it will be.

Q. I have an old washstand with a marble top. Over the years, the top has taken a lot of punishment and is beginning to make the whole thing look "lacky." What can I do to make this marble top look nice again? Someone suggested that I have it reground.

M.B., Antioch

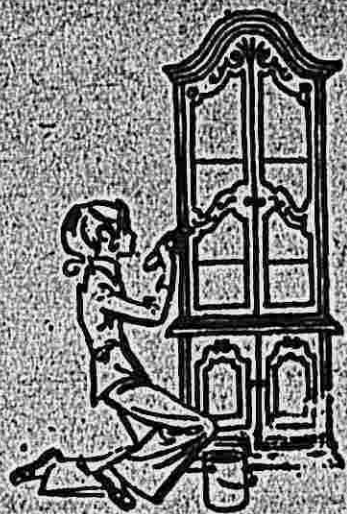

A. Having it reground is probably not necessary. There is a simple solution you can whip up that will improve the appearance of fine, old marble.

First, dissolve some bar soap in boiling water. (Cutting the soap in little pieces will speed it up.)

Use an equal amount of water. When this is slurry, add equal amounts of quicklime and caustic potash (check the drug-store). Brush the mixture on and let it set for several days, then wipe it off.

The last step is to polish it with marble polish. If the marble top is discolored or needs whitening, make an equal-parts mixture of washing soda, pumice and white chalk and rub it in.

THANK YOU for your questions. I hope I was able to help you out. Send questions and comments to Furniture Clinic in care of the Antioch News. See you next week!

Allendale School Gets Top Rating

At a meeting of the Personnel Effectiveness Committee of the Community Fund of Chicago, the Allendale School in Lake Villa was awarded an outstanding rating in "Achievement of 1975 Goals."

"This means that Allendale School, a residential treatment center for emotionally disturbed boys, has accomplished all of its significant level goals," said Wayne Parthum, director of development. "This accomplishment, usually of problem solving or innovative goals, was demonstrated to have made an outstanding contribution to the agency."

ALLENDALE WAS able to obtain this status by working with Manplan Consultants of Chicago, and in particular, George Swope and Bob Harschnek, on the development of an all new wage and salary administration program, and a complete review of all job categories and descriptions.

This process involved a complete review of positions in child care, administration and supportive services. Each employee of the school participated by meeting with the representatives of Manplan and preparing job descriptions as they viewed their job.

These were then reviewed by a committee of supervisory staff and put into the final stage. Manplan then coordinated each department and prepared a flow chart.

THE SCHOOL also received a commendable rating in category II, "Personnel Goals and Objectives for FY76."

"These goals are designed to significantly improve the personnel program," Parthum said. "This meant that by working, again with Manplan consultants, Allendale was able to rewrite all its personnel policies, child care policies and develop a retirement program."

"Although these are not a first for Allendale, or for similar facilities, it is a very significant accomplishment for a child care agency the size and age of Allendale."

"Both of these achievements will mean additional funds for Allendale and a position to be proud of in the child care field," Parthum said.

Walter Cherry, president of the Allendale Association, expressed his appreciation to Manplan consultants and in particular, to George Swope and Robert Harschnek Jr., "for their very significant contribution in making this award possible."

Meeting Set On 'Day Care' Standards

"Day care" mothers living in Lake and McHenry counties are being urged to attend a meeting Saturday, Aug. 21, at the College of Lake County, Grayslake, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The meeting in the Blue Lecture Hall will revise licensing standards for day and night care homes.

The standards will become effective Sept. 1. Representatives of local health and fire departments will be available to answer questions.

Coffee and rolls will be served. A $1 registration fee will be charged to cover the morning's expenses.

The standards are the guidelines that all licensed day care mothers throughout the state of Illinois must follow in caring for children in their homes.

For more information, persons can call 249-1550.

If you make butter the first ingredient on sandwiches, it will add to the moisture and flavor and help keep the filling from soaking into the bread.

In case of rain, the concert will be held in the cafeteria. The public is welcome.

Moose Picnic This Sunday

By STEPHANIE POLSON

Forty-six co-workers were present for the Star Recorder chapter night. Junior Regent Betty Schulmeister acted as senior regent since Norma Lowe could not be present.

Betty opened the meeting and then turned the gavel over to Judy Page, who proceeded with the installation of Mooseheart chairman Chris Priller.

Betty then enrolled Nora Kucia, sponsored by Irene Klemz; and Betty Gaines, sponsored by Jerri Polson.

The star recorder committee presented entertainment for the evening. Members of the committee present were chairman June Ballenger, Jerri Polson, Pat Wagner, Una Fox, May Palmer and Judy Page. June gave a talk on the requirements for earning the star recorder degree. A poem was then read by Jerri Polson.

Elsie Toman read the hospitality report. Get well cards were sent to Richard Van Over, George Schroeder, Frank Lowe and Irene Brylinke. Sympathy cards were sent to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tralewski and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gehris.

St. Peter's Luncheon Promises To Be Fun

St. Peter's annual salad bar luncheon will begin at 11:30 a.m. Saturday with cocktails at the parish social center.

The lunch will be served at 12 noon and a special table will be available for ladies who are on a short lunch-hour from work.

The entertainment will be provided by Jean Bonnell, who presents a one-woman show as "The Genie."

She said the reason for her occult interest is that she was "just born curious." Her birthday, Nov. 3, is in the sign of Scorpio, and, astrologically, Scorpio is most closely associated with occult matters.

"This gives me a keen perception of people and so it is a natural thing for me to pursue the mystic worlds of palmistry, astrology, and E.S.P.," said Ms. Bonnell.

Jean Benes, chairlady for the event, has guaranteed all those attending "a very entertaining afternoon."

"Door prizes will be awarded as well as chances on a raffle," she said.

The donation is $3 per ticket and they will be sold at the door. All proceeds go to St. Peter's Women's club, which underwrites many of the expenses of the school.

Happenings

THE ANTIOCH Kennel Club will hold its "super summer fun match" Saturday at the Flying "D" Ranch on Rt. 12 in Wauconda.

The event begins at 10 a.m. and entries close one hour before judging.

Puppies will compete in various age groups, and adult dogs in American bred and open classes. There also will be a litter class.

Robert F. Glover of Antioch is chairman of publicity for the kennel club's event.

"Apple pie without cheese is like a kiss without a squeeze."

Brian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Zale of Grass Lake Rd., Antioch, was a May graduate of Illinois State University with a bachelor of ARIES [March 21-April 19] - Nothing is gained by making hasty moves so take plenty of time before embarking upon another course of action. Enthusiastic colleagues are on hand to lend advice and assistance.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Don't be discouraged by opposition from those who dwell with you; concentrate more on outside interests which only involve yourself.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - An older individual with experience can be invaluable in getting those fine ideas of yours off to a good start. Don't hesitate to seek knowledge from one in the know, then heed the advice.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Temporary ups and downs in money matters can be confusing; try to work out a realistic budget and adhere to it. A good week to clear up the paper work and tend to details.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - It may be necessary to change the routine of daily activities to best suit your new personal interests. Others may seek you out for advice.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Added energy sets a new pace now; focus on one accomplishment at a time. Try not to spread your interests too thin, more can be attained by devotion to only one cause.

LIBRA [September 23-October 21] - Although behind-the-scenes activities may hold a certain amount of glamorous appeal, it's best to steer clear of anything that's not entirely on the up and up.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Apply your knowledge to good use, especially where occupational interests are concerned. Superiors are willing to hear out those fine ideas.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Don't allow impatience to interfere with an otherwise promising week. Maintain a good disposition and keep your composure.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - You are more inclined now to act independently; by being a self-starter more is accomplished in less time. Allow time for others whom you are fond of, however.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - You are good at problem-solving now. Use your knack for getting to the bottom of things to clear up all pending partnership loose ends.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Although opinions may differ with others, a good working relationship can still be maintained. Show intelligence and cooperativeness if opposition does occur.

NEWSPAPERS IN THE CLASSROOM

Experts are recommending the use of the daily newspaper in the classroom to relate to study topics such as history, science, civics or social studies. Events of the day can be used to underscore school subjects, it is felt.

One education specialist utilizes display advertising to build vocabulary and to encourage creative writing.

Reading speed and comprehension are also aided by daily perusal of newspapers, say experts.

Grade School Registration Is Underway

Registration for Antioch Grade School District 34, kindergarten through fifth grade, will begin today (Wednesday) and continue on Thursday.

Pupils will be registered at the various schools in the district from 9 a.m. till 12 noon, and from 1 to 3 p.m. on Wednesday. Thursday's hours are 1 to 3 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m.

Registration for Upper Grade School students will be held later. The hours on Tuesday, Aug. 24, are 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 3 p.m. On Wednesday, Aug. 25, Upper Grade registration will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. and from 6 to 9 p.m.

THE DISTRICT is again looking for a business manager to replace Sam Kohr, who is retiring.

The board of education had decided upon James Fiore of Northbrook, Ill., but Mr. Fiore said he didn't want to move into the Antioch district. Superintendent Henry Meyer said the board felt that the business manager shouldn't live as far away as Northbrook, so it decided to seek a new candidate for the job.

A seventh board member to replace LaVerne M. Woods, who resigned, is still being sought. Names were expected to be mentioned at last night's meeting of the board.

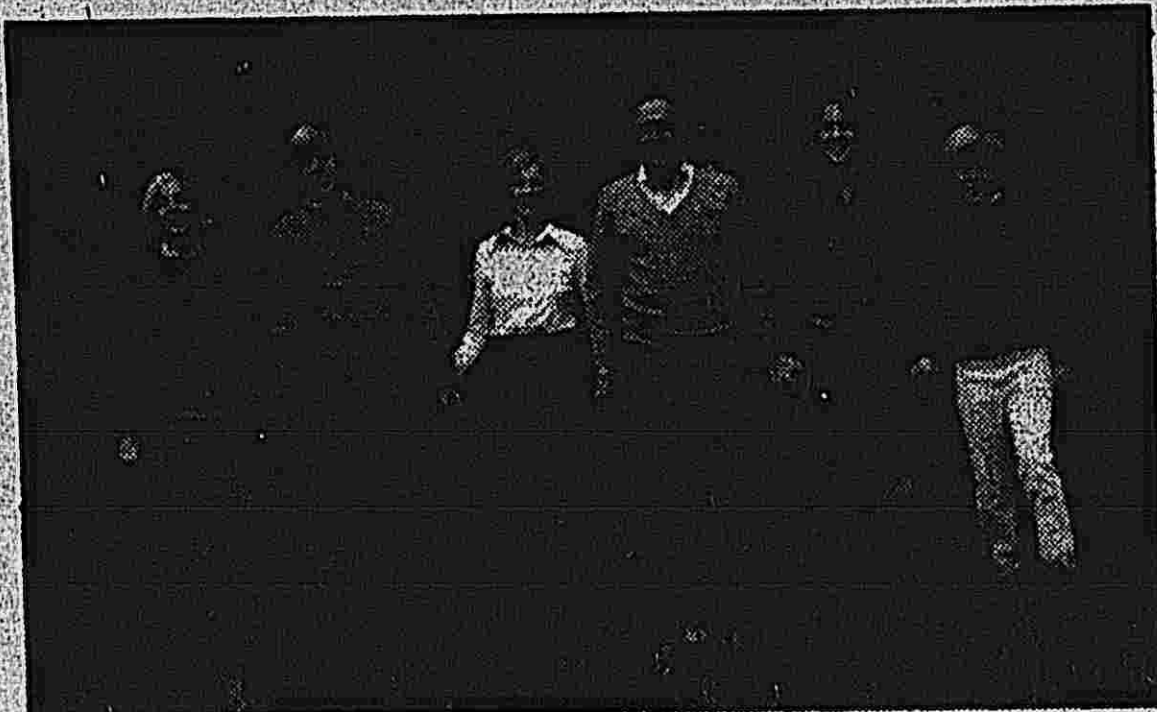

Also on the agenda was the raising of the instructional materials fee from $12 to $13. Lunches will go up from 55c to 60c, and milk from 5c to 6c.

AT ITS special meeting on Tuesday, Aug. 3, the board accepted the bid of $6,532 from Laursen and Blackman Co. of Antioch for concrete work at the Lower Grade School.

Also accepted was a bid of $2,434 from a Gurnee company for safety glass at Oakland school.

George Hucker was hired as an auto mechanic for the district at a salary of $12,750 a year.

Ingenious New Marking System Can Help Cut Theft Losses

Amid all the excitement and fun of getting ready for school, there are precautions to take — including protecting the student's belongings from theft. Doing that is made easier by a new system called Brink's that deters thieves and permits marking all items with invisible ink so they can be identified easily by police.

The system has three elements — a marker that applies the invisible ink, a Brink's emblem that deters theft by warning that the property has been invisibly protected, and a booklet of directions.

The marker is used to write a social security number, phone number or other distinctive designation on each item. The marking is written in a specific place, such as the lower right corner, to make it easy to tell police where to look. The ink becomes visible under long-wave ultra-violet light, which is available at most police stations and other law enforcement agencies.

Gets 199th Victory At Waukegan Track

Ray Young roared to his 199th career feature win Saturday night at the Waukegan Speedway by beating point leader Bob Dotter in the 30-lap feature.

Young wasted no time taking the feature lead by passing Phil Mass in the 8th lap. Mass finished third in the event.

The race was interrupted in the 24th lap by a four car crash which eliminated George Dukas, Hal Davis and Frank Dowell. The tangle occurred in the fourth turn when Acuff spun and the other three piled together.

Mike Simon of Grayslake passed Dennis Stareal of Round Lake in the 10th lap to win his 15th hobby feature of the year. The race was stopped one lap short of the scheduled 12 when George Winnett spun and stalled directly under the flag tower.

Saturday night was "Scout Night" at Waukegan and the crowd was treated to roll-over exhibitions by both Emil Ladewig and Bill Jones, Sr. Jones made repairs to his Chevelle and tried to run the hobby feature, but was sidelined by a broken radiator.

Promoter Gordon Sill announced the Waukegan track will host four nights of stock car racing over the Labor Day weekend to wrap up the 1976 season.

Also, Sill said new grandstands are to be installed at the 28-year-old speedway yet this summer. Several sections of the older wooden bleachers has already been dismantled in anticipation of the new seats.

SUPER MODIFIED stock car driver Ken Monroe of Pell Lake, Wis., won both ends of the SMAC series of racing this weekend with a 25-lap feature win at the Lake Geneva Raceway on Friday night and another at the Waukegan Speedway on Sunday night.

Monroe took the lead at Waukegan when leader Bob Warren, Beaver Dam, Wis., spun out and hit the wall.

Heat race winners were Jimmy Hedges, Kenosha, and John Tierney, Lake Villa.

Wilmot Runs Antioch News Feature Race

Dave Bliss of Huntley, Ill., won Saturday night's Antioch News championship race at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot.

It was his third straight win in super-modified stock car features at the track.

The streak equals the number set by track champion Dick Colburn, Muskego, Wis., who opened the season with three straight wins. Colburn has scored one other win this summer and two second-place finishes.

Colburn leads super-modified point standings with 695 while Bliss is now second with 412.

SATURDAY NIGHT, Colburn had a "bag-full of problems" which started as a front axle broke while qualifying. Then, after moving to third, his engine went sour and he pulled out of the feature.

At that time, Gary Dye was the leader and it wasn't until three laps from the end that Bliss made his pass to take his third straight win and his fifth overall at Wilmot for the season.

Forty-six super-modifieds took time trials for a new high for the season and they were led by Mike McNulty, Racine, with a 17.75 second lap. McNulty was seventh in the feature finish.

DON COLLINS of Antioch moved into the super-modified class and won the six-lap consolation race.

The action was at an all-time high in sportsman stock car racing too.

Dan Brown, McHenry, had the wrong set of circumstances in front of him on the backstretch of the feature and, after hitting Ron Holtdorf's car, caught a rut in the track and went flipping into the air with the car 25 feet high, according to some estimates. It landed on the guard rail against the fence in the pits and Dan crawled out uninjured.

Chuck Ostergaard, in a new car, finally won the 15-lap feature over Sid Norton, McHenry.

Dan Aronson, Pell Lake, won

A Dictatorship Could Happen Here

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

BARRY GOLDWATER

The obstinacy and stubbornness of bureaus that have been too long controlled by men of all major political persuasions proves to me the truth of Lord Acton's famous aphorism: Power tends to corrupt; absolute power corrupts absolutely."

To my mind the power possessed and exercised by the bureaucrats in Washington represents the most dangerous situation in America. If the wrong man should come along and be elected President, we could see a dictatorship erected almost overnight, and it would stem from the loss of power resulting from Congress' failure to live up to its responsibilities.

Because the power held in these bureaucratic agencies is power given to them by the Congress which - and I must tell it like it is - was just too damned lazy to take on the job itself.

AT THIS POINT, let me say that I am not suggesting a return to what was once called the spoils system, in which an incoming national administration cleaned house of all government workers who were not aligned with the new regime's political party.

I recognize that this cannot be done, nor should it be done. I further admit that a strong case can be made for the career employee in government and for his protection under the Civil Service system.

But I do not agree that this person, blanketed under Civil Service, has an automatic, providential right to permanent employment. Nor do I believe that Civil Service status should empower a civil servant with the right to make his own policy. I believe instead that government employees have a responsibility to the people, who are taxed to pay their salaries, to support and implement the policies that come down to them.

both spectator stock car events.

IN SPORTSMAN standings, Ken Zeisse now leads the track with 663 points. Ostergaard is second with 495 and Tom Homan of Antioch sixth with 377.

Homan had the third fastest qualifying time last Saturday and placed sixth in the 15-lap feature. He also was third in a 10-lap heat race.

from the people's elected representatives.

LET ME give an example. What do you think would happen in a private corporation if 300 of its employees held a mass meeting to protest the kind of product their employer was manufacturing?

You guessed it. In private industry this kind of effrontery from people whose job is not product design would be rewarded with dismissal notices. Yet several hundred employees of the Department of HEW - none of whom was elected by the people who pay them - held a mass meeting in 1970 to protest policy decisions reached by the White House, the secretary of HEW, and others whose job it is to formulate policy in accordance with the wishes of the people who elected the Administration they serve.

And what followed the protesters' actions besides the disruption of HEW's administrative processes and the annoyance of the man chosen by the President to run that department? Nothing.

No action was taken at the executive level, nor was a word said in reprimand. This is what it means to hold the kind of power the Washington bureaucracy exercises today.

Understand, I have no objections to any government worker expressing in the proper forum his feeling or belief about any policy.

I object most strenuously, however, to the practice of an official using his position as a government employee to undermine, or refuse to work for, the policy of that government.

Clocks In Whimsical New Look

Chicago (NFS) - How would you like to have a Model "A" in the den, a scarecrow in the kitchen, or a country outhouse in the family room?

These are just three of many imaginative design themes offered in a new collection of decorative battery clocks by the New Haven division of Burwood Products Company.

The new Friv model is a quaint reminder of rural America in days long past. Complete with shade tree, picket fence, and corn cobs hung outside, it measures 15 by 17 inches high.

A MERRY FELLOW is the Scarecrow, clad in patched blue overalls and playing host to a couple of bold crows. He stands against a background of rail fence and corn shock, his fat middle framing a white clock dial with red numerals.

A likely choice for a playroom as well as for the kitchen or family room, this clock is 13 1/2 by 15 1/2 inches high.

Long on nostalgia and short on mileage is the daring Model "A" with its rear-mounted spare tire encircling a clock dial. A stop sign and fire plug add notes of realism to the 14 by 15-inch design, which might even be used in an office.

1976 DODD MEMORIAL TROPHY WINNER - Recipient of the Doug Dodd Memorial Trophy "Swimmer of the Year" award is Jack Fields, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fields of 621 Parkway, Antioch, for his outstanding contributions to the Antioch swim team program, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch. Presenting the trophy for the coveted award is Mrs. Marty Berry, right, the team coach.

State Bank Swimmers End Winning Season

The Antioch "Seals" swim team closed its season with its annual "record breaker" meet and team party.

The swimmers, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, had a "very successful season," according to Coach Marty Berry.

Twenty-eight records were set, and the team finished with a 5-3 record in dual meets.

They also were fourth in the North Suburban Conference Relays, third in the North Suburban championships, first in the Kenosha Relays, and then first in their own Antioch Invitational.

LEADING THE way in setting records were triple winners Kaky Kelly, Lisa Dunn, Sue Harrison and Phil Jaworek.

Double winners were Dave

Berry, George Bessette, Jack Fields and Sheryl Harrison.

Others setting records were Theodore Bessette, Trina Spietz, John Bellucci, Janet Hund, Ted White, Shelly Voling, John Schmidt and Frank Bessette.

Coach Berry selected 10 swimmers, a boy and a girl from each age group, for "most improved" honors. They were: 8 years and under - Dawn Denny and Denny Heiselmann; 9 and 10 years - Kathy Latz and Scott Yielding.

11 and 12 years - MaryAnn Wawro and Joe Emmerich.

13 and 14 years - Kathy Oddsen and Theodore Bessette. 15 and 16 years - Janet Hund and Jack Fields.

Visual Advantage

Like many other sports, tennis takes concentration and coordination. Earn an advantage before you get on the courts. Contact lenses offer greater peripheral vision than glasses. Dr. Robert A. Koetting, contact lens chairman of the American Optometric Association says: "Athletes may be particularly satisfied with soft contact lenses because there are minimal problems with dust floating under the lenses while they are worn or with them popping off. And, when you perspire, there is no problem with fogging lenses."

Dodd Memorial Trophy for "best meeting the valuable traits of loyalty, good sportsmanship, leadership and ability."

Last year's recipient, Sue Berry, was unable to attend, so Coach Berry awarded the trophy to Jack.

Jack then presented Pres Reckers, representing the State Bank, with the first place trophy from the Antioch Invitational, and Jenny Schmidt gave Mr. Reckers the first place trophy from the Kenosha Relays.

Gifts were presented to Coach Berry and her assistant, Bill Brennan. Coach Berry said she hopes all the swimmers will be back next summer for another fine season.

Lake Geneva Track Offers $300 Bounty

Larry Leach, Elkhorn, Wis., a former super-modified stock car driver, now racing in the late model sportsman stock car events, set a new one-lap qualifying record Sunday night at the Lake Geneva Raceway. He then won the fast heat race and 25-lap feature to score a sweep of the events.

His new one-lap qualifying record was 17.67 seconds.

In winning the 25-lap feature, Leach had to admit that the yellow flags and cautions caused by spinning drivers ahead of him in the earlier laps, worked to his advantage. However, once up to second place, Leach had a real battle with Jerry Straube, Waterford, and the two traded the lead back and forth before Leach took the checkered flag just inches ahead of Straube.

DAVE WATSON, Milton, Wis., won the 30-lap feature race for late model stock cars at Lake Geneva Saturday night and extended his string of wins to six straight at the track. He has 29 feature wins for the season among four other tracks.

Watson set fast time and won a heat race Saturday.

Lake Geneva Raceway promoters have now placed a "bounty" on Watson, worth up to $300, to any driver who can win the feature over Watson ...

provided they qualify in the top five positions, and provided Watson is still running at the end of the feature and finishes in the top five spots.

The first night the "bounty" will be worth $100 and, if not claimed, will be worth $150 on the following night ... provided it is won by a driver who raced on the previous week and failed to win the bounty money.

The sportsman cars will be in action this Friday night, along with the super-modified and spectator stocks.

KEN MONROE, Pell Lake, had the most speed, power and skill in the 25-lap SMAC super-modified stock car feature at Lake Geneva Raceway Friday night.

The 25-lap feature race was halted twice, the first time on the third lap when Carmen Menzardo, Lindenhurst, went over the wheel of Dean Potter, Richmond, and flipped over. His car was righted and Menzardo continued in the restarted feature but oil on his shoe caused him to have trouble using the brake pedal properly and he was out of the top 10.

sale of these stamps are used to improve waterfowl habitat," said Tony Dean, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation. "Half of the money collected goes for habitat improvements within Illinois, and the other half is used for improvement projects on Canadian meeting grounds."

In addition to the funds generated by sale of the waterfowl stamp to hunters, 500 full-color, signed and numbered reproductions of the stamp will be auctioned at Ducks Unlimited fund raisers and through art galleries. The 1976 stamp depicts a pair of wood ducks on a cypress branch in a swampy area typical of southern Illinois.

LEARNING TO LEARN

Speak to them. Direct conversation with children from infancy, even before they can answer, can help them learn to distinguish and imitate sounds.

2. Read to them. Daily reading from children's books, such as those in Childcraft-The How and Why Library, can make reading seem enjoyable. It will be a skill they will want to acquire.

There once was an English duke who was so proud he would never allow his children to sit in his presence and only spoke to his servants by signs.

Safer Than Hy. 83?

By JERRY PFARR

Did you ever hear the story about the English soldier, returning from the invasion of Normandy in 1943, when a quarter of a million men from the Allied armies attacked the Germans in World War II and inflicted 400,000 casualties on the enemy?

"What was it like?" the Englishman was asked.

"Oh, not too bad, really," he replied. "...but the noise and the people!"

I GUESS that's been one of my favorites for perhaps 30 years because I think it typifies my personality.

I like to think I'm as good at ease and leisure, and peace and quiet, as any man alive. I'm really not comfortable among noise and crowds.

This probably comes as a shock to those of you who thought I was a lot more than just a pair of pretty legs.

My swashbuckling, flamboyant appearance is really nothing but a front. I'm not the Errol Flynn-type I pretend to be, nor do I spend my weekends standing on the wings of biplanes while they make loops.

ALL OF THIS explicit introduction and cleansing confession leads up to the fact that last Saturday night I attended the stock car races at Wilmot Speedway.

I'm sure I haven't seen a live auto race in more than 20 years. My only connections with the sport have been the stories that appear weekly in the Antioch News, my friendship with Tom Homan (one of the Antioch drivers) and listening to the Indianapolis "500" on the radio every Memorial Day.

Like the Super Bowl, the World Series and the Kentucky Derby, the Indy "500" is something magical that you don't want to miss.

Although it's fascinating, I am among those who wonder if big-time auto racing shouldn't be banned. It's because of those staggering statistics that show a great percentage of big-time drivers are killed in crashes.

BUT I WENT to Wilmot because the promoters, Toft

Auto Racing, have been good to us and were staging a special Antioch News feature race. We would be introduced to the crowd and present the trophy.

It was an excellent public relations gesture on the part of Ray Toft and handled beautifully by his public relations man and announcer, Jack Biddison.

There was plenty of noise and lots of people, but I really enjoyed the three hours of racing. It is a colorful and exciting sport.

The drivers feel that this type of auto racing is safer than motoring on the highways and, from what we've seen of Hy. 83 north of Antioch, they're probably right.

One car was hit broadside and went flying end-over-end about 10 feet above the track, but the driver wasn't injured. We talked with him after the race and he was shaking a bit, but had only a slight scratch on his arm.

IT'S ESPECIALLY fun when you know some of the drivers, as we know Tom Homan of Antioch and Danny Aronson of Pell Lake, and watch them try to maneuver their way through the pack.

And the behavior of the crowd surprised me. The stock car fans were thoroughly gentle, not blood-thirsty like those we've seen at boxing matches; or impolite, like some we've seen at basketball games.

As a general said way back in World War II:

"I shall return."

Write injuries in dust ... benefits in marble.

The nice thing about meditation is that it makes doing nothing quite respectable.

TWO-WHEEL CHAMPS - It might look easy when you watch the Chitwoods do it, but don't try to put your car up on two wheels and drive that way unless you have good insurance and another car to drive. Two-wheel precision driving is one of the features in the 21-act Jole Chitwood Thrill Show that will perform at the 56th Kenosha County Fair on Friday, Aug. 13, at 8 p.m.

If your blankets are badly worn, you can cut out the bad spots and combine what's left to make one big blanket, which can now be used for the warm interlining of a quilt cover.

DOMESTIC and INTERNATIONAL ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

Beware of auto rental bargains!

Most of you might have heard a word or two about some of the problems. Abundance of special-rate auto rentals among leading international and domestic firms are not always "advertised bargains" when extras become added to advertised rate.

Added expenses of insurance and sales taxes build costs along with the factor of no major credit cards.

Always request in advance for complete estimated costs. However, avoid last minute decision to rent auto, by making reservations in advance with your local travel agent. He can cut your waiting time from up to one hour and provide assurance that the type of vehicle preferred will be waiting upon arrival at the rental agency, along with a tremendous savings in dollars.

Knowledge of the product and client's needs are our line of business. So why not give us a call for any of your needs, whether it be business or pleasure?

Our business is service at no cost to you. Renting an auto might seem like an easy task, but not when you go to pay the bill with all the hidden charges.

Should you be under (or over) age, or with no major credit cards, it can end your vacation or business trip in utter disaster.

Happy travels. Give a call - okay?
